

On Monday, Northampton county sent eight reinforcements to the State pen.

There were two hundred and seventy-seven marriages in Granville county last year.

In Salem there are 54 widows, 12 widowers, 108 single sisters and about 51 single brothers.

The Bank at Windsor, Bertie county, was broken open on Sunday last and robbed of about $550.

Dr. J. A. Faqua, well known in Eastern Carolina as a dentist, died recently in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Milton Chronicle publishes the marriage of a young man of 22 with a widow with 14 children.

There are eight bills to create new counties either introduced or about to be introduced into the Legislature.

Robert Mitchell, a colored man in Granville county, suicided Monday last by shooting himself through the head.

A negro by the name of James Simmons has been committed to Bertie county jail, charged with killing his wife.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter, of Henderson, killed three 12 month old pigs, weighing respectively 470, 500 and 555 pounds.

The Wilson Plaindealer has entered upon its 21st volume and the paper is now in a better condition than ever before. Long may it wave.

The new hall Neuse Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at Goldsboro, was dedicated on Tuesday evening, Major Seaton Gales officiating and delivering the address.

Oxford Leader: Mr. Denis Tillery, who is said to be the best tobacco raiser in the world, so'd in Durham tobacco market last week a tierce of tobacco at $148 per cwt.

The Goldsboro Messenger records the particulars of a very sad accident in Johnston county, by which a Mr. L. D. Bailey was instantly killed while felling a tree near Beula, on the 9th inst.

Mr. J. R. McVey, the well-known Kentucky wine drover, has presented to Mr. W. S. Mallory, of Franklinton, a pure blooded Cotswold ram, which is said to be the largest sheep ever seen in Franklin county.

Dr. C. F. Deems of the North Carolina Conference, in charge of the Church of the Strangers, New York City, has gone to Florida for his health, and Dr. Moran will supply his place during his absence.

The navigation of the Yadkin river is again talked of, and the present Legislature is to be petitioned to grant a charter. It is estimated by competent judges and engineers that 25,000 dollars will be sufficient to open the river from the N. C. railroad bridge to 15 or 20 miles above Wilkesboro.

The Raleigh News says: The oldest member of the North Carolina bar, who received his license in this State, is Judge Bailey of Asheville. He is W. Venable, of Oxford, received his license in Virginia, where, in 1820, and is a few months the junior of Judge Bailey. Judge B. is also one of the surviving members of the 1835 Convention.

The following is from the Wilson Advance: "Mr. A. B. Williams, of Nash, is an energetic and successful farmer. He buys no fertilizers and makes his supplies at home. Last year he raised with three plows, 40 bales of cotton and an abundance of corn. His farm is self sustaining in every respect and if the farmers generally would follow his example the country would be in a prosperous condition."

The Raleigh News says: At 3 o'clock yesterday evening the funeral procession of the late Mayor, Joseph W. Holden, took place from the residence of his father, ex-Governor Holden, on Hargett street. The stores were closed and business in the city generally suspended. The fire companies, Knights of Pythias and the Raleigh Light Infantry turned out in full dress, and with the citizens on foot, formed the longest funeral procession we ever witnessed in the city. Dr. Pritchard preached the funeral sermon at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church to one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in the building. His remains were deposited in the Oakwood Cemetery at 4 o'clock.

The Raleigh News says: The session of the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday was consumed entirely in the argument on the cases of Cloud vs. Wilson, and Moore vs. Hilliard, both cases being heard in conjunction. In the first case, Mr. McCormick appeared for the plaintiff, and the defense represented by Messrs. Graves, Smith & Strong, and J. W. Graham. In the latter case, Messrs. E. G. Haywood, J. B. Batchelor and Judge Fowle appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Smith & Strong, Battie and son, D. M. Carter, and Gen. Cox appeared for the defense. Each of the attorneys took part in the argument, and the matter was thoroughly discussed, every available point being brought to bear. The Court will probably render a decision Monday evening.

It would seem that Pritchard has again come to grief, for the time being at least. His new credentials, from the present bogus Legislature of Louisiana, it was thought would immediately seat him in the present mood of the Radical members of the U. S. Senate. But a Washington dispatch states that his credentials were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, where they will sleep. Can it be that the Republican Senators are not prepared to endorse the Kellogg government, in obedience to the demands of Dictator Grant?

RATES OF ADVERTISING:

Advertisements will be inserted in the Tarboro' Southerner at the following rates: Ten lines of text, or one inch length will constitute a square.	One square one insertion.	Each subsequent insertion.
1 mo. 2 mos. 3 mos. 6 mos. 12 mos.
One square.	2.00	1.00
Two "	3.00	1.50
Three "	4.00	2.00
Four "	5.00	2.50
Five "	6.00	3.00
Six "	7.00	3.50
Seven "	8.00	4.00
Eight "	9.00	4.50
Nine "	10.00	5.00
Ten "	11.00	5.50
Eleven "	12.00	6.00
Twelve "	13.00	6.50
Thirteen "	14.00	7.00
Fourteen "	15.00	7.50
Fifteen "	16.00	8.00
Sixteen "	17.00	8.50
Seventeen "	18.00	9.00
Eighteen "	19.00	9.50
Nineteen "	20.00	10.00
Twenty "	21.00	10.50

Subscription $2.50. If paid cash at time of subscribing $2.00.

Dr. S. M. PETTENGILL & CO., 10 State Street, Boston, 27 Park Row, New York, and 701 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, are our Agents for procuring advertisements for the Tarboro' Southerner, and authorized to contract for advertising at our lowest rates.

Dr. J. A. Faqua, well known in Eastern Carolina as a dentist, died recently in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Milton Chronicle publishes the marriage of a young man of 22 with a widow with 14 children.

There are eight bills to create new counties either introduced or about to be introduced into the Legislature.

Robert Mitchell, a colored man in Granville county, suicided Monday last by shooting himself through the head.

A negro by the name of James Simmons has been committed to Bertie county jail, charged with killing his wife.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter, of Henderson, killed three 12 month old pigs, weighing respectively 470, 500 and 555 pounds.

The Wilson Plaindealer has entered upon its 21st volume and the paper is now in a better condition than ever before. Long may it wave.

The new hall Neuse Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at Goldsboro, was dedicated on Tuesday evening, Major Seaton Gales officiating and delivering the address.

Oxford Leader: Mr. Denis Tillery, who is said to be the best tobacco raiser in the world, so'd in Durham tobacco market last week a tierce of tobacco at $148 per cwt.

The Goldsboro Messenger records the particulars of a very sad accident in Johnston county, by which a Mr. L. D. Bailey was instantly killed while felling a tree near Beula, on the 9th inst.

Mr. J. R. McVey, the well-known Kentucky wine drover, has presented to Mr. W. S. Mallory, of Franklinton, a pure blooded Cotswold ram, which is said to be the largest sheep ever seen in Franklin county.

Dr. C. F. Deems of the North Carolina Conference, in charge of the Church of the Strangers, New York City, has gone to Florida for his health, and Dr. Moran will supply his place during his absence.

The navigation of the Yadkin river is again talked of, and the present Legislature is to be petitioned to grant a charter. It is estimated by competent judges and engineers that 25,000 dollars will be sufficient to open the river from the N. C. railroad bridge to 15 or 20 miles above Wilkesboro.

The following is from the Wilson Advance: "Mr. A. B. Williams, of Nash, is an energetic and successful farmer. He buys no fertilizers and makes his supplies at home. Last year he raised with three plows, 40 bales of cotton and an abundance of corn. His farm is self sustaining in every respect and if the farmers generally would follow his example the country would be in a prosperous condition."

The Raleigh News says: At 3 o'clock yesterday evening the funeral procession of the late Mayor, Joseph W. Holden, took place from the residence of his father, ex-Governor Holden, on Hargett street. The stores were closed and business in the city generally suspended. The fire companies, Knights of Pythias and the Raleigh Light Infantry turned out in full dress, and with the citizens on foot, formed the longest funeral procession we ever witnessed in the city. Dr. Pritchard preached the funeral sermon at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church to one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in the building. His remains were deposited in the Oakwood Cemetery at 4 o'clock.

The Raleigh News says: The session of the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday was consumed entirely in the argument on the cases of Cloud vs. Wilson, and Moore vs. Hilliard, both cases being heard in conjunction. In the first case, Mr. McCormick appeared for the plaintiff, and the defense represented by Messrs. Graves, Smith & Strong, and J. W. Graham. In the latter case, Messrs. E. G. Haywood, J. B. Batchelor and Judge Fowle appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Smith & Strong, Battie and son, D. M. Carter, and Gen. Cox appeared for the defense. Each of the attorneys took part in the argument, and the matter was thoroughly discussed, every available point being brought to bear. The Court will probably render a decision Monday evening.

It would seem that Pritchard has again come to grief, for the time being at least. His new credentials, from the present bogus Legislature of Louisiana, it was thought would immediately seat him in the present mood of the Radical members of the U. S. Senate. But a Washington dispatch states that his credentials were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, where they will sleep. Can it be that the Republican Senators are not prepared to endorse the Kellogg government, in obedience to the demands of Dictator Grant?

THE
Carboro' Southerner.
Friday, January 29, 1875

On Monday, Northampton county sent eight reinforcements to the State pen.

There were two hundred and seventy-seven marriages in Granville county last year.

In Salem there are 54 widows, 12 widowers, 108 single sisters and about 51 single brothers.

The Bank at Windsor, Bertie county, was broken open on Sunday last and robbed of about $550.

Dr. J. A. Faqua, well known in Eastern Carolina as a dentist, died recently in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Milton Chronicle publishes the marriage of a young man of 22 with a widow with 14 children.

There are eight bills to create new counties either introduced or about to be introduced into the Legislature.

Robert Mitchell, a colored man in Granville county, suicided Monday last by shooting himself through the head.

A negro by the name of James Simmons has been committed to Bertie county jail, charged with killing his wife.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter, of Henderson, killed three 12 month old pigs, weighing respectively 470, 500 and 555 pounds.

The Wilson Plaindealer has entered upon its 21st volume and the paper is now in a better condition than ever before. Long may it wave.

The new hall Neuse Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at Goldsboro, was dedicated on Tuesday evening, Major Seaton Gales officiating and delivering the address.

Oxford Leader: Mr. Denis Tillery, who is said to be the best tobacco raiser in the world, so'd in Durham tobacco market last week a tierce of tobacco at $148 per cwt.

The Goldsboro Messenger records the particulars of a very sad accident in Johnston county, by which a Mr. L. D. Bailey was instantly killed while felling a tree near Beula, on the 9th inst.

Mr. J. R. McVey, the well-known Kentucky wine drover, has presented to Mr. W. S. Mallory, of Franklinton, a pure blooded Cotswold ram, which is said to be the largest sheep ever seen in Franklin county.

Dr. C. F. Deems of the North Carolina Conference, in charge of the Church of the Strangers, New York City, has gone to Florida for his health, and Dr. Moran will supply his place during his absence.

The navigation of the Yadkin river is again talked of, and the present Legislature is to be petitioned to grant a charter. It is estimated by competent judges and engineers that 25,000 dollars will be sufficient to open the river from the N. C. railroad bridge to 15 or 20 miles above Wilkesboro.

The following is from the Wilson Advance: "Mr. A. B. Williams, of Nash, is an energetic and successful farmer. He buys no fertilizers and makes his supplies at home. Last year he raised with three plows, 40 bales of cotton and an abundance of corn. His farm is self sustaining in every respect and if the farmers generally would follow his example the country would be in a prosperous condition."

The Raleigh News says: At 3 o'clock yesterday evening the funeral procession of the late Mayor, Joseph W. Holden, took place from the residence of his father, ex-Governor Holden, on Hargett street. The stores were closed and business in the city generally suspended. The fire companies, Knights of Pythias and the Raleigh Light Infantry turned out in full dress, and with the citizens on foot, formed the longest funeral procession we ever witnessed in the city. Dr. Pritchard preached the funeral sermon at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church to one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in the building. His remains were deposited in the Oakwood Cemetery at 4 o'clock.

The Raleigh News says: The session of the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday was consumed entirely in the argument on the cases of Cloud vs. Wilson, and Moore vs. Hilliard, both cases being heard in conjunction. In the first case, Mr. McCormick appeared for the plaintiff, and the defense represented by Messrs. Graves, Smith & Strong, and J. W. Graham. In the latter case, Messrs. E. G. Haywood, J. B. Batchelor and Judge Fowle appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Smith & Strong, Battie and son, D. M. Carter, and Gen. Cox appeared for the defense. Each of the attorneys took part in the argument, and the matter was thoroughly discussed, every available point being brought to bear. The Court will probably render a decision Monday evening.

It would seem that Pritchard has again come to grief, for the time being at least. His new credentials, from the present bogus Legislature of Louisiana, it was thought would immediately seat him in the present mood of the Radical members of the U. S. Senate. But a Washington dispatch states that his credentials were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, where they will sleep. Can it be that the Republican Senators are not prepared to endorse the Kellogg government, in obedience to the demands of Dictator Grant?

THE
Carboro' Southerner.
Friday, January 29, 1875

On Monday, Northampton county sent eight reinforcements to the State pen.

There were two hundred and seventy-seven marriages in Granville county last year.

In Salem there are 54 widows, 12 widowers, 108 single sisters and about 51 single brothers.

The Bank at Windsor, Bertie county, was broken open on Sunday last and robbed of about $550.

Dr. J. A. Faqua, well known in Eastern Carolina as a dentist, died recently in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Milton Chronicle publishes the marriage of a young man of 22 with a widow with 14 children.

There are eight bills to create new counties either introduced or about to be introduced into the Legislature.

Robert Mitchell, a colored man in Granville county, suicided Monday last by shooting himself through the head.

A negro by the name of James Simmons has been committed to Bertie county jail, charged with killing his wife.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter, of Henderson, killed three 12 month old pigs, weighing respectively 470, 500 and 555 pounds.

The Wilson Plaindealer has entered upon its 21st volume and the paper is now in a better condition than ever before. Long may it wave.

The new hall Neuse Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at Goldsboro, was dedicated on Tuesday evening, Major Seaton Gales officiating and delivering the address.

Oxford Leader: Mr. Denis Tillery, who is said to be the best tobacco raiser in the world, so'd in Durham tobacco market last week a tierce of tobacco at $148 per cwt.

The Goldsboro Messenger records the particulars of a very sad accident in Johnston county, by which a Mr. L. D. Bailey was instantly killed while felling a tree near Beula, on the 9th inst.

Mr. J. R. McVey, the well-known Kentucky wine drover, has presented to Mr. W. S. Mallory, of Franklinton, a pure blooded Cotswold ram, which is said to be the largest sheep ever seen in Franklin county.

Dr. C. F. Deems of the North Carolina Conference, in charge of the Church of the Strangers, New York City, has gone to Florida for his health, and Dr. Moran will supply his place during his absence.

The navigation of the Yadkin river is again talked of, and the present Legislature is to be petitioned to grant a charter. It is estimated by competent judges and engineers that 25,000 dollars will be sufficient to open the river from the N. C. railroad bridge to 15 or 20 miles above Wilkesboro.

The following is from the Wilson Advance: "Mr. A. B. Williams, of Nash, is an energetic and successful farmer. He buys no fertilizers and makes his supplies at home. Last year he raised with three plows, 40 bales of cotton and an abundance of corn. His farm is self sustaining in every respect and if the farmers generally would follow his example the country would be in a prosperous condition."

The Raleigh News says: At 3 o'clock yesterday evening the funeral procession of the late Mayor, Joseph W. Holden, took place from the residence of his father, ex-Governor Holden, on Hargett street. The stores were closed and business in the city generally suspended. The fire companies, Knights of Pythias and the Raleigh Light Infantry turned out in full dress, and with the citizens on foot, formed the longest funeral procession we ever witnessed in the city. Dr. Pritchard preached the funeral sermon at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church to one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in the building. His remains were deposited in the Oakwood Cemetery at 4 o'clock.

The Raleigh News says: The session of the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday was consumed entirely in the argument on the cases of Cloud vs. Wilson, and Moore vs. Hilliard, both cases being heard in conjunction. In the first case, Mr. McCormick appeared for the plaintiff, and the defense represented by Messrs. Graves, Smith & Strong, and J. W. Graham. In the latter case, Messrs. E. G. Haywood, J. B. Batchelor and Judge Fowle appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Smith & Strong, Battie and son, D. M. Carter, and Gen. Cox appeared for the defense. Each of the attorneys took part in the argument, and the matter was thoroughly discussed, every available point being brought to bear. The Court will probably render a decision Monday evening.

It would seem that Pritchard has again come to grief, for the time being at least. His new credentials, from the present bogus Legislature of Louisiana, it was thought would immediately seat him in the present mood of the Radical members of the U. S. Senate. But a Washington dispatch states that his credentials were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, where they will sleep. Can it be that the Republican Senators are not prepared to endorse the Kellogg government, in obedience to the demands of Dictator Grant?

THE
Carboro' Southerner.
Friday, January 29, 1875

On Monday, Northampton county sent eight reinforcements to the State pen.

There were two hundred and seventy-seven marriages in Granville county last year.

In Salem there are 54 widows, 12 widowers, 108 single sisters and about 51 single brothers.

The Bank at Windsor, Bertie county, was broken open on Sunday last and robbed of about $550.

Dr. J. A. Faqua, well known in Eastern Carolina as a dentist, died recently in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Milton Chronicle publishes the marriage of a young man of 22 with a widow with 14 children.

There are eight bills to create new counties either introduced or about to be introduced into the Legislature.

Robert Mitchell, a colored man in Granville county, suicided Monday last by shooting himself through the head.

A negro by the name of James Simmons has been committed to Bertie county jail, charged with killing his wife.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter, of Henderson, killed three 12 month old pigs, weighing respectively 470, 500 and 555 pounds.

The Wilson Plaindealer has entered upon its 21st volume and the paper is now in a better condition than ever before. Long may it wave.

The new hall Neuse Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at Goldsboro, was dedicated on Tuesday evening, Major Seaton Gales officiating and delivering the address.

Oxford Leader: Mr. Denis Tillery, who is said to be the best tobacco raiser in the world, so'd in Durham tobacco market last week a tierce of tobacco at $148 per cwt.

The Goldsboro Messenger records the particulars of a very sad accident in Johnston county, by which a Mr. L. D. Bailey was instantly killed while felling a tree near Beula, on the 9th inst.

Mr. J. R. McVey, the well-known Kentucky wine drover, has presented to Mr. W. S. Mallory, of Franklinton, a pure blooded Cotswold ram, which is said to be the largest sheep ever seen in Franklin county.

Dr. C. F. Deems of the North Carolina Conference, in charge of the Church of the Strangers, New York City, has gone to Florida for his health, and Dr. Moran will supply his place during his absence.

The navigation of the Yadkin river is again talked of, and the present Legislature is to be petitioned to grant a charter. It is estimated by competent judges and engineers that 25,000 dollars will be sufficient to open the river from the N. C. railroad bridge to 15 or 20 miles above Wilkesboro.

The following is from the Wilson Advance: "Mr. A. B. Williams, of Nash, is an energetic and successful farmer. He buys no fertilizers and makes his supplies at home. Last year he raised with three plows, 40 bales of cotton and an abundance of corn. His farm is self sustaining in every respect and if the farmers generally would follow his example the country would be in a prosperous condition."

The Raleigh News says: At 3 o'clock yesterday evening the funeral procession of the late Mayor, Joseph W. Holden, took place from the residence of his father, ex-Governor Holden, on Hargett street. The stores were closed and business in the city generally suspended. The fire companies, Knights of Pythias and the Raleigh Light Infantry turned out in full dress, and with the citizens on foot, formed the longest funeral procession we ever witnessed in the city. Dr. Pritchard preached the funeral sermon at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church to one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in the building. His remains were deposited in the Oakwood Cemetery at 4 o'clock.

The Raleigh News says: The session of the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday was consumed entirely in the argument on the cases of Cloud vs. Wilson, and Moore vs. Hilliard, both cases being heard in conjunction. In the first case, Mr. McCormick appeared for the plaintiff, and the defense represented by Messrs. Graves, Smith & Strong, and J. W. Graham. In the latter case, Messrs. E. G. Haywood, J. B. Batchelor and Judge Fowle appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Smith & Strong, Battie and son, D. M. Carter, and Gen. Cox appeared for the defense. Each of the attorneys took part in the argument, and the matter was thoroughly discussed, every available point being brought to bear. The Court will probably render a decision Monday evening.

It would seem that Pritchard has again come to grief, for the time being at least. His new credentials, from the present bogus Legislature of Louisiana, it was thought would immediately seat him in the present mood of the Radical members of the U. S. Senate. But a Washington dispatch states that his credentials were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, where they will sleep. Can it be that the Republican Senators are not prepared to endorse the Kellogg government, in obedience to the demands of Dictator Grant?

THE
Carboro' Southerner.
Friday, January 29, 1875

On Monday, Northampton county sent eight reinforcements to the State pen.

There were two hundred and seventy-seven marriages in Granville county last year.

In Salem there are 54 widows, 12 widowers, 108 single sisters and about 51 single brothers.

The Bank at Windsor, Bertie county, was broken open on Sunday last and robbed of about $550.

Dr. J. A. Faqua, well known in Eastern Carolina as a dentist, died recently in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Milton Chronicle publishes the marriage of a young man of 22 with a widow with 14 children.

There are eight bills to create new counties either introduced or about to be introduced into the Legislature.

Robert Mitchell, a colored man in Granville county, suicided Monday last by shooting himself through the head.

A negro by the name of James Simmons has been committed to Bertie county jail, charged with killing his wife.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter, of Henderson, killed three 12 month old pigs, weighing respectively 470, 500 and 555 pounds.

The Wilson Plaindealer has entered upon its 21st volume and the paper is now in a better condition than ever before. Long may it wave.

The new hall Neuse Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at Goldsboro, was dedicated on Tuesday evening, Major Seaton Gales officiating and delivering the address.

Oxford Leader: Mr. Denis Tillery, who is said to be the best tobacco raiser in the world, so'd in Durham tobacco market last week a tierce of tobacco at $148 per cwt.

The Goldsboro Messenger records the particulars of a very sad accident in Johnston county, by which a Mr. L. D. Bailey was instantly killed while felling a tree near Beula, on the 9th inst.

Mr. J. R. McVey, the well-known Kentucky wine drover, has presented to Mr. W. S. Mallory, of Franklinton, a pure blooded Cotswold ram, which is said to be the largest sheep ever seen in Franklin county.

Dr. C. F. Deems of the North Carolina Conference, in charge of the Church of the Strangers, New York City, has gone to Florida for his health, and Dr. Moran will supply his place during his absence.

The navigation of the Yadkin river is again talked of, and the present Legislature is to be petitioned to grant a charter. It is estimated by competent judges and engineers that 25,000 dollars will be sufficient to open the river from the N. C. railroad bridge to 15 or 20 miles above Wilkesboro.

The following is from the Wilson Advance: "Mr. A. B. Williams, of Nash, is an energetic and successful farmer. He buys no fertilizers and makes his supplies at home. Last year he raised with three plows, 40 bales of cotton and an abundance of corn. His farm is self sustaining in every respect and if the farmers generally would follow his example the country would be in a prosperous condition."

The Raleigh News says: At 3 o'clock yesterday evening the funeral procession of the late Mayor, Joseph W. Holden, took place from the residence of his father, ex-Governor Holden, on Hargett street. The stores were closed and business in the city generally suspended. The fire companies, Knights of Pythias and the Raleigh Light Infantry turned out in full dress, and with the citizens on foot, formed the longest funeral procession we ever witnessed in the city. Dr. Pritchard preached the funeral sermon at the Salisbury Street Baptist Church to one of the largest audiences that ever assembled in the building. His remains were deposited in the Oakwood Cemetery at 4 o'clock.

The Raleigh News says: The session of the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday was consumed entirely in the argument on the cases of Cloud vs. Wilson, and Moore vs. Hilliard, both cases being heard in conjunction. In the first case, Mr. McCormick appeared for the plaintiff, and the defense represented by Messrs. Graves, Smith & Strong, and J. W. Graham. In the latter case, Messrs. E. G. Haywood, J. B. Batchelor and Judge Fowle appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Smith & Strong, Battie and son, D. M. Carter, and Gen. Cox appeared for the defense. Each of the attorneys took part in the argument, and the matter was thoroughly discussed, every available point being brought to bear. The Court will probably render a decision Monday evening.

It would seem that Pritchard has again come to grief, for the time being at least. His new credentials, from the present bogus Legislature of Louisiana, it was thought would immediately seat him in the present mood of the Radical members of the U. S. Senate. But a Washington dispatch states that his credentials were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections, where they will sleep. Can it be that the Republican Senators are not prepared to endorse the Kellogg government, in obedience to the demands of Dictator Grant?

THE
Carboro' Southerner.
Friday, January 29, 1875

On Monday, Northampton county sent eight reinforcements to the State pen.

There were two hundred and seventy-seven marriages in Granville county last year.

In Salem there are 54 widows, 12 widowers, 108 single sisters and about 51 single brothers.

The Bank at Windsor, Bertie county, was broken open on Sunday last and robbed of about $550.

Dr. J. A. Faqua, well known in Eastern Carolina as a dentist, died recently in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Milton Chronicle publishes the marriage of a young man of 22 with a widow with 14 children.

There are eight bills to create new counties either introduced or about to be introduced into the Legislature.

Robert Mitchell, a colored man in Granville county, suicided Monday last by shooting himself through the head.

A negro by the name of James Simmons has been committed to Bertie county jail, charged with killing his wife.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter, of Henderson, killed three 12 month old pigs, weighing respectively 470, 500 and 555 pounds.

The Wilson Plaindealer has entered upon its 21st volume and the paper is now in a better condition than ever before. Long may it wave.

The new hall Neuse Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., at Goldsboro, was dedicated on Tuesday evening, Major Seaton Gales officiating and delivering the address.

Oxford Leader: Mr. Denis Tillery, who is said to be the best tobacco raiser in the world, so'd in Durham tobacco market last week a tierce of tobacco at $148 per cwt.

The Goldsboro Messenger records the particulars of a very sad accident in Johnston county, by which a